Enterprises, LLC v. Herschel Walker's Smokehouse & Pizzeria and John Walker
United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia

Res 0 54052.010500

Case number cv 407-017

Herschel Walker, John Walker, & David Walker partners and owners of Herschel Walker's Smokehouse & Pizzeria 7 Gateway Boulevard West Savannah, Ga. 31419 do hereby deny all allegations in referenced letter dated January 29, 2007 and the enclosed Summons case number CV 407-017.

Our Herschel Walker is now 84 years old and a veteran of World War II having served in both north Africa and in Europe during World War II.
Now he is told that he can't even use his own name on his own restaurant. What kind of Justice is this? Is this what he fought for during world war II? We hope not.

Our entire family have always been great fans of Herschel's. We have followed his career from Johnson county high school Wrightsville, Ga.
To the University of Ga. And through out his professional football career. We are still interested in Herschel and believe him to be a great Christian Athlete. Our Herschel Walker is also a Christian. Therefore, they are brothers in Christ. If we are forced to take down the Herschel Walker signs we don't have the money to replace them, the signs cost $4,000.00 which is a great deal of money for us. If Herschel wants us to remove the signs it will cause a great hardship. We have only one request that Herschel read and some how let us know that he has read our response.

We hereby agree in writing to cease and desist all supposedly illegal activity as out lined in your letter dated January 29,2007.

Respectfully Yours,

Herschel Walker
